

Facts for Area C:

Boundaries: US 90, St. Landry Parish line, LA 182, LA 93

Description: The small community of Carencro is often described as idyllic in nature. With a quaint Main Street and restoration of the historical homes and landmarks in the area, Carencro is a perfect example of a small town in South Louisiana.

Neighborhoods: Arnaudville, Atchafalaya Acres, Avanti, Baudoin Addition, Beau Basin, Beau Chenes, Bradford Gate, Briarfield, Cajun Village, Deer Park, Fairground Place, Froeba, Leigh Heights, Mark Ridge Park, Northfield, North Midway, Ossun Heights, Prejean, St. Pierre Park, The Grand Stakes, Tisdale, Trewill, Wise Acres, Whitney Oaks, with more in the planning and development stages.

Fire Stations: Carencro Volunteer Fire Department

Perks: Public library (Carencro branch), Moore Park, Carencro Park, Pelican Park, The Wetlands Golf Course

Health Clubs: Body Rock Gym, Curves for Women, Mr. B's Fitness Center

Facts for Area B:

Boundaries: St. Martin Parish line, Hector Connolly Road, LA 182

Description: Rolling hills, wooded landscapes, and a true country feel have attracted residents who want to be away from the hubbub of the city to Area B. Often referred to as a pastoral setting, this area has also begun to see scattered new developments.

Neighborhoods: Aristide Brasseaux, Belle Bois, Gracewood Hills, Hidden Hills, Lexington Heights, Magnolia Farms, Magnolia Woods

Perks: The Farm golf course, Hearts & Horses Riding Academy

St. Peter's Church, Area C

The City of Carencro

From the nationally renowned Pelican Park to the majestic St. Peter's Church, Carencro has much to offer. Sitting at the crossroads of Interstate 10 and 49, the city has been named the Cleanest City of Louisiana in its size category for many years. Charming oak trees, Acadian style homes gracing the fertile terrain, and the slow, quiet pace of this city are a few reasons why some call Carencro Acadiana's best kept secret.

Academy of the Sacred Heart School, Area B

Area B

Professionals who work in and around Lafayette have turned to this area directly north of town as an escape. With the terrain shifting dramatically to rolling hills, people often comment, "This doesn't seem like South Louisiana."

Area B also enjoys easy access to the quaint village of Grand Coteau, where the Academy of the Sacred Heart is located. With a pleasant shopping district and award-winning restaurants, Grand Coteau makes a wonderful day trip.